THE FIRST ONE FROM TODAY WAS MISSING SOME KEY POINTS. YIPPEE TO TECHNOLOGY!

HERE IS WHAT IS WAS SUPPOSED TO LOOK LIKE!

Hey All!

First we want to send out a very large THANK YOU to all who participated in our Vote 2 Win Contest! You guys really stepped up and showed your support not only to Tatshirts.com but to the artists on the site! GREAT WORK EVERYONE!

Now for the crappy part…… Due to the fact that we only had only 85 people vote during the Vote 2 Win Contest, we cannot offer up the i-Pad as the grand prize. For those of you who won a free tee we hope you enjoy it!

Now I know how much this really SUCKS, but there is hope. We still have the i-Pad AND we still want to give it to you, so this is what we are going to do.

We want YOU to decide the contest. That's right; we are giving YOU full reign. YOU shoot us an e-mail, we will then take in all your feedback, then we will sift through them all and come up with the best choices. We will then put out a questionnaire with the final ideas. You then tell us which one you want!

Tatshirts.com wants the community to come together and shake things up! Ultimately, YOU GET TO DECIDE!

And as always we have our on going contests still up and running!

$500 Custom Design Contest! http://www.tatshirts.com/subterms.php

$100 On-line tattoo Contest! http://www.tatshirts.com/tattooterms.php

Finally, if there are any Artists out there looking to show off your skills drop us an e-mail we'll get an interview from ya with some pics of your work, and it will go right up on our Featured Artist Page!

Thanks all!

BIG STEVE!
